INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON

“BUILDING IDEAS ABOUT JUSTICE INTO POLICY RESEARCH”

(November – 3 & 4, 2023) (Venue - AB 2 – CR 104)

Public policy research has a clear opportunity to provide insight into issues of inequality and justice across a wide range of specific topical areas. In this workshop, students will explore how they might think about including considerations of inequality or justice into their independent research. On day one, students will be exposed to a range of ideas about inequality and justice and to the concept of the research project cycle. On day two, the ideas will be further developed, using a combination of small group work and large group discussion.
